

THE PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

I welcome this opportunity to introduce myself to you as the new president of the Association. After decades of having an Overholser as our head, it may seem strange to many of you having another "name" in that position. However, be assured I am part of the family, coming through a line of females from III Martin, IV Elizabeth, who married Samuel Watts. Last names may change but the blood line doesn't.

Descendants of III Martin organized reunions early in this century and he is the reason for our ties to Terre Hill. Overholser relations were important to my grandmother (Caroline Shober Stroeble), who regularly attended reunions from their beginning, and my mother (Pauline). I have been attending family reunions virtually since being a babe in arms and have early memories of gathering when they were held at Longs Park in Lancaster. My family has lived in various parts of eastern Pennsylvania so this tradition has been easy to maintain and it is enjoyable to see familiar faces each year and also meet new ones.

After graduation from the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia with a degree in history, I worked a while for the U.S. Treasury in the division which issues Social Security and tax refund checks. I then returned to Penn for several years, this time as an employee, working with fraternities and sororities. More recently, I worked with student clubs and activities in Abington, Pa. for the Ogontz Campus of Penn State, but am now seeking a new position. A tabby cat owns me. I enjoy reading extensively - history, current affairs, mysteries, etc.; collecting stamps; doing needlework; listening to classical music and jazz; and attending ballet.

78th ANNUAL REUNION

Date: Saturday, Aug. 22, 1987
Place: Terre Hill Fire Hall,
Terre Hill, PA

Details (including map) in the August BULLETIN. Keep the date open and plan to come! For out-of-state members, why not include the Reunion in your vacation plans? Philadelphia will be celebrating the 200th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution all summer long, Mennonite and Mormon library centers are conveniently located in the Reunion area for research, the Lancaster County/Pa. Dutch region has an abundance of historic and scenic sights as well as excellent motels and restaurants. Come and bring the family!

Since my knowledge of family genealogy is limited, I am glad that Spencer Overholser has agreed to continue as family genealogist for now. It is amazing how he is able to link up people and relate them. The officers are grateful to him for the three decades and work spent in increasing the growth and outreach of the Association. To give Spencer some relief, we are looking for one of you to assume the role of genealogist -- or perhaps several members willing to work on their particular line(s) of the family. Should you have any interest, please let me know.

Remember our Reunion in August on the fourth Saturday. Plan to be there if you can! If you are interested in a tour as noted in the minutes, please let me know by early summer so that arrangements can be made.

OBERHOLTZER ARTICLE PUBLISHED

John L. Overholt of Kilmarnock, Va., one of the Association's pre-eminent researchers, is the author of an article in the October 1986 issue of PENNSYLVANIA MENNONITE HERITAGE entitled, "The Marcus Oberholtzer (1664-1725) Family," published by the Lancaster Mennonite Historical Society. The article is the result of 8 years' work and deals with the identification and correlation of all known Oberholtzers in Europe prior to emigration to America and a detailed description of Marcus's descendants. It is a valuable addition to the literature on this branch of the family.

New member RONALD L. OBERHOLTZER, 604 Winslow Ave., North Cape May, N.J. 08204, is compiling his family's genealogy and expects to have about 20 pages covering 11 generations when completed. Member Milton Blanding of Michigan has been a big help to him as he has to many of our members. Ronald's immigrant ancestors, Hans Jacob and Catherina Oberholts, emigrated to Philadelphia from Switzerland, through Germany to Rotterdam, and Deal, England from where they sailed on the "Alexander and Anne" arriving Sept. 5, 1730. The family lived mostly in eastern Pennsylvania in such places as Hatfield, Lansdale, and Norristown in addition to Philadelphia. He would welcome correspondence from others in this line.

THANK YOU!

Our deep thanks to these members who have contributed to the support of the Association since our last list.

56 ATTEND 77TH REUNION

The 77th annual reunion of the Overholser Family Association was held on Saturday, Aug. 23, 1986, in the Terre Hill (PA) Fire Hall and was attended by 56 people. The meeting was preceded by a covered-dish luncheon and a slide presentation featuring Oberholz, Switzerland, and the original Overholser farm in Lancaster County.

President J. Spencer Overholser called the meeting to order followed by the invocation by the Rev. John R. Weiler, Chaplain. The Secretary's minutes were approved as printed in the February 1986 BULLETIN. The financial report was submitted by Treasurer Marjorie Carroll and Auditor Robert Oberholser and approved as submitted. Necrologist Robert Oberholser submitted his report to the Secretary.

There was a display of books on the history of Terre Hill brought by Michael Wenger, the town's official historian. An invitation from Elizabeth Oberholser Frey was read inviting members to the celebration of the 95th birthday of her father, Robert Oberholser, on Sept. 13 at their home in Freehold, N.J.

The singing of the reunion song was led by Ruth Overholser and included the following extra verse she had composed in honor of retiring President, Spencer Overholser:

O, the years they come and go as we older, wiser grow,
Still singing on the word "reunion,"
May the time spent here on earth urge us to improve our worth,
Waiting for a heavenly reunion.

Those attending the Reunion for the first time were introduced: Harland and Amy Young, Ontario, Canada; Darwin, Jean and Margaret Overholt, Doylestown, Pa.; Lloyd and Mildred Overholt, Blooming Glen, Pa.; Warren and Irene Overholt Little, Wickliffe, Ohio; and Norman Landis.

The following were acknowledged:

Oldest person in attendance: Robert M. Oberholser (94)
Youngest person in attendance: Andrew Kendall (4)
Those traveling the furthest: Harland and Amy Young, Canada
Couple married the longest: Ira and Mary Watts Sassaman (48 years)

The Nominating Committee report given by Daythal Kendall submitted the following slate of officers for the next 2 years:

President: John Oswald, Conshohocken, Pa.
1st Vice Pres.: Mildred Pettigrew, Pottstown, Pa.
2nd Vice Pres.: Dick Stevens, Lititz, Pa.
Secretary: Ellen Livingood, Lansdale, Pa.
Treasurer: Marjorie Carroll, North Hills, Pa.

The Necrologist and Chaplain are appointed positions.

As there were no further nominations, it was moved that the nominations be closed and the Secretary cast a unanimous ballot for the slate as presented.

It was reported that the possibility of producing woven badges of the family crest was being studied.

Outgoing President J. Spencer Overholser was presented with a plaque recognizing his 30 years of exemplary service to the Association from 1956-86. He was also presented with two dinner tickets to the Moselem Springs Inn.

It was moved and unanimously accepted that the 1987 Reunion be held on Saturday, Aug. 22. A poll was taken to ascertain the interest in offering a tour of Lancaster County and/or sites of interest related to the Overholser family on the morning of the Reunion. It will be considered for next year.

The meeting was adjourned by the President.

Respectfully submitted,
ELLEN LIVINGOOD
Recording Secretary

MARJORIE CARROLL

J. J. (HANNES) OBERHOLZER, our member in South Africa, checked in with a newsy letter recently. He has changed jobs -- from Director of the National Museum in Bloemfontein to Chief Director of the Museums Department of the Durban Municipality (address: P.O. Box 4085, Durban 4000, Republic of South Africa). He completed his doctoral thesis and was awarded the PhD last March. John J. Overholt of Sarasota, Fla. invited Hannes to attend the reunion in Oberholz, Switzerland June 22-23 but he was unable to make it. (See story about the reunion in this issue.) Hannes plans to dig into the history of the Oberholzer family in South Africa including information on the town of Oberholzer in the Western Transvaal. (Is this the only village, other than Oberholz, Switzerland, named after our family?) Hannes's 16-year-old daughter, Esmari, would like to correspond with a member(s) of the family of about the same age, male or female. Also his son Andre, a newspaper photographer in Johannesburg, is at the marriageable age of 24 and would like to correspond with any single young ladies in the family. (This could open up a whole new concept in genealogy!--Ed.)

HAVE YOU CONTRIBUTED?

As you know, the Association has no dues or assessments. Nor do we receive grants or donations from government or foundations. We depend entirely on contributions from the members, either at the annual Reunion (when a collection is taken) or by mail between Reunions. Since we do not send bills or dues notices, it is easy to forget that contributions are needed. Hence this reminder.

Our needs are few. No one who works for the Association receives a salary or stipend. All are volunteers who furnish their time and energies freely and willingly. However, as with all organizations, there are expenses. The major one is the BULLETIN, now in its 9th year. It is the instrument that holds our far-flung membership together. Its two issues per year account for over three-fourths of out total expenses. Although we do our utmost to keep costs down, printing and mailing it are not cheap. Other expenses -- letterheads, postage, copying, etc. -- are minimal.

If you have not contributed for some time, may we suggest that you send a check to the Treasurer (payable to the Overholser Family Assn.) at the address on page 2 so that we can continue to serve you in a creditable manner. Any amount is welcome. Donations are acknowledged by a listing of contributors (but not amounts) in each issue of the BULLETIN. Thank you.

RUTH M. WONSIDLER (Mrs. Enos R.), 712 S. Towamencin Ave., Lansdale, PA 19446, is working on the connection between her Moyer and Detweiler ancestors and the Oberholtzers. Her great-great-great-great-grandmother, Maria Moyer Detweiler, had three Oberholtzers as brothers-in-law, Abraham H., Christian H., and Henry C. (1760-1829). She would appreciate any further information on the Oberholzer-Detweiler connection.

O.F.A. MEMBERS MAKE 'PILGRIMAGE' TO OBERHOLZ, SWITZERLAND

The ancestral home of the Oberholzers is the small alpine village of Oberholz near Zurich, Switzerland. It was the destination last summer of several members of the Association to attend an Oberholzer Reunion on June 22-23 at the restaurant/guest house owned by Rosy Oberholzer, a member of O.F.A., and her husband, Gottfried.

Member Darwin Overholt, a real estate man in Doylestown, Pa., took 11 members of his family (including his wife, mother, their children and grandchildren) on a two-week flying visit to Switzerland. After landing in Geneva and spending time in the 'Sound of Music' country around Interlaken and Zermatt, they arrived at Rosy's to join the 100 or so others for the Reunion. About half were from the U.S. (from Fla. to Calif.) with others from Europe and the Oberholz area. There were yodellers, an alpine horn trio, a brass band and singing by a family from Sarasota, Fla. (see below) as well as much fellowship and getting to know one another.

A great time was had by all! The next day, they gathered in the 1706 chapel and sang old hymns. They discovered that communication was no problem -- Darwin's mother, Margaret, spoke the Pennsylvania Dutch dialect which the Swiss understood perfectly!

Another American party left on June 4 on a 2-1/2 week singing tour of 13 Mennonite and other churches in Germany, France, Switzerland, and Belgium. They were the John J. Overholt family and friends from Sarasota, Fla. Included in the party were Assn. member Durand Overholtzer and his wife and son of Modesto, Calif.

John had been to Europe many times on singing tours and as a Mennonite relief worker. He is a minister and he and his wife Vera (a descendant of John Overholt (1820-1890)) operate the Christian Hymnary Publishers with their main work being the largest Mennonite hymnal published (over 1,000 hymns). John had known Rosy since he became the first Mennonite Overholt to visit the ancestral home in 1950, when he arrived on a noisy motorcycle and scared the villagers off the streets! He is a descendant of Marcus Oberholtzer (1664-1725) who emigrated to America in 1710 with Hans Herr and others. (Incidentally, the reunion of the descendants of Vera's ancestor, John Overholt, will be held in Sarasota during Christmas vacation this year.)

A third group of Americans to visit Oberholz were members of a Swiss Study Tour led by Dr. Delbert Gratz, librarian and historian at Bluffton College, a Mennonite college in Bluffton, Ohio. They toured West Germany, France, Switzerland, and the Palatinate by bus from July 22-Aug. 12. They had discussions with Mennonite and other leaders, worshiped in Mennonite churches three Sundays, and stayed with Mennonite families and institutions as well as in inns and hotels. They visited Oberholz but not at the time of the reunion, although O.F.A. members John L. and Peg Overholt were at the reunion before joining the Gratz group. John also did research on the Oberholtzers in Europe before emigration. Assn. members Willard and Betty Oberholtzer of Rancho Cordova, Calif. were also in the group. Dr. Gratz has been taking study groups to Germany for 15 years and will lead another one this June 9-30.

(Note: After serving as hostess for so many American 'relatives', Rosy decided to come over and visit some of them. Darwin Overholt picked her up at Kennedy Airport 5 days before Thanksgiving and took her to Doylestown where she stayed with his mother. They got along famously because of no language barrier, went shopping for quilts among other activities. At Thanksgiving dinner, Rosy joined the 32 at the table! Since she is an avid reader of Pearl Buck's books, the Overholts took her to Miss Buck's grave and toured her home, then drove

A letter from JUDITH OBERHOLTZER (Mrs. William Henry) of PO Box 130, Flossmoor, Ill. 60422 gives the lineage of her husband. He was born in 1931 in Joliet, Ill., "the son of Ethel Morris (b. 1896) and Sherman B. Oberholtzer (b. 1899) of Bowling Green, Ind. Sherman was the son of Sarah Ann and Warren Oberholtzer, the latter the son of Mary Catherine and William Oberholtzer. If anyone has a tie-in to this line, Judith would enjoy hearing from them.

West Overton Village in western Pennsylvania is the site of the Abraham Overholt (1784-1870) homestead and distillery that flourished between 1840 and 1900. The distillery is now a museum and the Village is a National Historic District maintained by the Westmoreland-Fayette Historical Society which is researching the social, economic, and religious life of the Village's residents.
