Daniel moved to Xenia OH in December 1853. A cooper by trade, went ahead of his family in order to find a suitable location & establish himself in the copper business which he did, in partnership with Eli Millen.
"Daniel gave up the cooper business & took up farming. He operated several large farms in Alpha, OH from 1857 to 1873 at which time he bought a farm near Alpha on the Dayton-Xenia Pike. Here he spent the rest of his life.
Rev Daniel was a member of the Church of God.

His son Daniel, is now residing at the place which his father bought." - Mrs Ira Townsley, d/o Agnes Overholser

Ridgway Manufacturing Company. He owned several buildings in Ridgway: the Thayer House on Center St which was an apartment building, two other rentals, plus his own house also on Center. This house had an attached greenhouse, which was the beginning for many roses and other plants. In maintaining apartment buildings, Earl once fell from a second story roof onto a brick driveway and sustained no apparent injurt. I do remember riding with him to Bradford
